Police Explorers

The Watertown Police Explorers held a fundraiser to support American Family Children's Hospital at Watertown Regional Medical Center. The Explorers, who consist of 16- to 21-year-olds, get opportunities to participate in some hands-on law enforcement experiences and community volunteering opportunities. Pictured from left are Pedro Gallegos, Watertown Police Explorers president, Daria Jarrig, manager of Pediatric Services at AFCH, Cody Butler, Watertown Police Explorers, and Sgt. Randy Johnson of the Watertown Police Department. To learn more about the Watertown Police Explorers contact Johnson at rjohnson@cityofwatertown.org.

The Watertown Police Department recently recognized 18 officers for successfully completing the department's physical fitness test for either five or 10 consecutive years. This is the same physical fitness test which prospective police applicants complete. In the back row from the left are Capt. Curt Wagner, Officer Jon Warner, Detective Jeff Cavalli, Officer Ted Johnson, Officer Jeff Harty and Chief Tim Riess. In the front row from the left are Officer Laura Bonham, Officer Christopher Harms, Officer Ryan Abbott, Capt. Roben Hansen and Sgt. Tim Krugel. Absent are Detective Thomas Beckler, Sgt. Dave Brown, Capt. Ronny Johnson and Officer Tim Wacker.
